

THE REPUBLICAN TROUBLES

Lively Time Is Expected Over the State Chairmanship.

HAWLEY IS DEVELOPING STRENGTH

He is Giving the Green Men Considerable Worry Since He Controls the Texas Patronage.

Dallas, Texas, June 25.—There seems to be much more in the talk of Congressman Hawley being run against Colonel E. H. R. Green for chairman of the republican state committee than was at first supposed. A great many republicans in this part of the state are talking Hawley and the idea of defeating Green seems to have taken deeper root than even its projectors at first anticipated.

The claim is being made by the anti-Green men that the state chairman is in league with "Goose-neck" B. H. McDonald. The latter has a great many enemies, especially among the colored contingent, who will join with the anti-Green forces in order to down McDonald.

It seems that the McKinley administration has turned the Texas pie counter over to Hawley. They want him returned to congress and are giving him a "pull" on the patronage list to help him along. Hawley, though, so it is reliably reported, knows something of the revolt against him among the negroes of his district and is fearful that his election would be impossible. He desires to be the controlling factor of Texas republicanism and, feeling that he may not secure the wanted position, he is allowing his friends to push him as a candidate for the state chairmanship.

Chairman Green has until very recently fortified himself with the impression that Hawley would not run against him for reelection. Hawley is not running, but Hawley's friends are running him for all the game is worth. Unless the Galveston congressman, which no one expects, puts a quietus on his inchoate chairmanship boom, his name will be presented to the Fort Worth convention and strong efforts will be made to land him in the position now occupied by the Terrill man.

The Green delegation, chosen in this county a few days since, will have a strong contest on its hands. Where Chairman Green imagined he was most secure he has encountered serious opposition. The republican leaders, especially Green, are in a quandary. They have been claiming 100,000 republican votes in Texas. If they fail to nominate a state ticket at Fort Worth this year it will be equivalent to an abandonment of the organization. If they put a ticket in the field the chances are it will not poll 50,000 votes. In either of these contingencies the National leaders would want to know what had become of their much-vaunted army. They have not yet solved this problem.

The row over the chairmanship promises to become acute. Dr. Grant and his forces have no use for either Green or Hawley. If possible, however, they have Green worse than they do the other. Hawley, on the other hand, if he is elected, would have the Hawley men to humiliate the Terrill candidate. The nearer to nothingness Texas republicanism comes the worse grows their family row.

Austin, Texas, June 25.—Ed Anderson, the well known republican politician of this city, has returned from Washington, where he spent several months pushing his claims for appointment as postmaster of Austin. Speaking of the republican situation in the state today, Mr. Anderson said:

"There is no foundation for the report that Congressman H. B. Hawley is a candidate for chairman of the state executive committee to succeed E. H. R. Green. Some of Mr. Hawley's friends may be urging him for the post, but he will not oppose Mr. Green. I think that Mr. Hawley will be a candidate for reelection to congress." Mr. Anderson stated that Washington is filled to overflowing with men seeking military appointments, and that all of the government departments are crowded with work.

PICNIC AT LIVINGSTON.

Judge Cravens Urges the Support of Eight Democrats.

Livingston, Texas, June 24.—At early morn the good people surrounding this beautiful city began to assemble by all modes of conveyance and by 11 o'clock probably ten people had gathered to enjoy the barbecue prepared for the occasion.

At 11:30 Hon. J. C. Cravens in his happy style presented Judge N. A. Cravens of Willis as orator of the day, who ably entertained the audience for an hour or more, winding up by an appeal to all democrats to be true to their party and principle, and vote only for such candidates as honor the party as such candidates.

The judge took the position that the independent was for office regardless of party or principle and does not merit the support of any party. A few independents were present, as well as several populists, but did not enjoy the address as much as the democrats.

A game of ball was enjoyed by the young folks in the evening and a grand ball at the court house at night was largely attended, a number being present from Corrigan, Shepherd and intermediate points.
